1171 Farmers Sign In Grain Program

Plan Diverts 34,000 Acres; $331,462 Paid

A total of 1171 Milam County farmers signed up for the 1961, one - year feed grain program, according to Alva Sanders, manager of the Milam Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation office.

He said the total represented 70 per cent of the eligible producers in the county, about 1670 grain crop growers.

The Milam program has diverted 22,996 acres of grain sorghum and 11,165 acres of corn from production, Sanders noted.

Advance payments under the 1961 grain program total $331,462.39.

Sanders pointed out that producers who signed 20 per cent or more of their feed grain base will be eligible for price support to the extent of normal production. This is computed by multiplying the normal production by the permitted acreage.

Final payments will be made as soon as the land is measured and procedure for making final payments are received in the Milam ASC office, Sanders said.

He urged producers who have feed grain to dispose of to complete their reports since crop reporters are now measuring the diverted acreage and only those farms which have crops disposed of and diverted acreage in order will be eligible in the program.

Sanders said that diverted acreage may be left idle, summer followed or seeded to a summer legume.

No further grazing is permitted on the acreage untiland the seeding of small grain.

The 1961 Milam County loan rate for grain sorghum has been announced at $2.15 per hundred and the loan rate for oats at 71 cents per bushel.

Construction Continuing At Three Locations

Construction progressed at three projects in Cameron, including painting the exterior features of First Baptist Church and interior work at Newton Memorial Hospital.

Workmen had painted the spire and columns of the First Baptist Church as main construction work on the building was being completed. Landscaping of the lawn was underway earlier this week.

Interior construction work on Newton Memorial Hospital was well underway as installation of air conditioning duckwork and plumbing and electrical work progressed. Grading work was underway for installation of paving surfaces in the driveway and parking areas in front of the building. Completion is expected sometime late this summer.

And in downtown Cameron, Duke & Ayres had completed construction of awning and glasswork and workmen were building new interior display fixtures. Manager Bill Nolan said the project will probably be completed in the next three weeks.

In other modernization developments, McLane Company was decorating the interior of company offices.

In other parts of the city, workmen have completed decoration of City Park on E. Fourth St. with the white-washing of trees, trimming of grass and shrubbery in the area. And grading work was complete on the horse show arena area in Wilson - Ledbetter park, awaiting reconstruction of arena fences for the July Cameron Horse Show.

Alcoans Score Safety Record

Potroom Crew 3 at Aloca's Rockdale Works has completed more than five years -- and more than a million hours—without a lost-time accident, according to statistics revealed this week at the plant.

This is the best record ever compiled by a crew at Rockdale Works and has been equalled on very few occasions elsewhere in the industry, according to Works Manager R. R. Sugg, who made the announcement.

Potroom Crew 3 is composed of about 100 men and is under the supervision of Shift Foreman D. D. White. It is one of four crews which attend the smelting pots at the plant around the clock.

The period of safe work for the crew began May 24, 1956. The million hour mark was reached early this month. On two different occasions the crew went as long as a month without even so much as a reportable injury, according to Safety Director Walter Martin.

In industrial terminology a lots-time accident is one that would require an employee to miss more than one day's work. Minor injuries that require only first-aid treatment are not considered lost-time accidents but may be reportable accidents.

"We are proud that one of our crews has reached such an enviable record, but as long as there is room for improvement we must find ways to reach new goals; after all, we aren't after the record alone, we are more interested in the safest possible job conditions for the more than 900 Alcoans who are working at the plant," Sugg pointed out.

Previously another Rockdale Works potroom crew reach 750-000 hours without a lost - time accident. It was Crew 1 under Shift Foreman Grady Watson.

"Of much concern to us still is the off - the - job accident ratio," Sugg said.

Board Votes Out 7th-8th Football

The Cameron School Board Tuesday night appointed a Citizens Advisory Group to discuss the classroom shortage at O. J. Thomas School and released a statement concerning last Thursday's vote to eliminate seventh and eighth grade football.

Board officials noted that at least four classrooms are needed to alleviate crowded conditions at O. J. Thomas School. State laws limit the number of students to 35.

Officials said classes have been held in he home-making room, the library, school lunchroom and the lab room due to lack of classroom space.

The Citizens Advisory Group is to meet 3 p.m. June 24, officials said.

Thursday following a discussion on the potential danger of permanent injuries to adolescent youngsters in contact sports, the board voted 5-1 to eliminate seventh and eighth football in Cameron schools.

Dr. Robert Tumlinson cited the action of the Austin School Board in heeding statistics provided by the Travis County Medical Association on the frequency of permanent injuries to youngsters playing contact sports. He cited studies that showed that frequency of permanent injuries suffered by pre-adolescent and adolescent youngsters in contact sports—boxing and football—was much higher than in high school, college and adult levels of the sports in professional ranks.

Board member Niley Smith asked what the other conference schools were going to do. Dr. Gus Evans said that school officials in Rockdale were concerned about medical recommendations on contact sports, but had not taken action.

Dr. S. H. Richardson cited that larger city schools were de-emphasizing contact sports and football particularly.

Dr. Tumlinson raised the question by asking the board members what they tell parents if one of the youngsters in that age group was permanently injured after medical authority had shown the prospective danger of permanent injuries.

Dr. David Shapiro noted that Cameron could also save $1,200 on a coach's bonus and $800 on equipment.

The board voted to eliminate football for the seventh and eighth grades and to return football equipment not useable by the YHS gridders and already on order.

The board also voted to hire Mrs. John Batte to teach fifth grade, Mrs. Ellen Malcik as teacher-co-ordinator of special education and authorized Dr. Earl Knebel to employ three other teachers if they were available for employment in the Cameron Schools next fall.

In other action, the board:

ONE—Accepted with regret the resignation of J. R. Young, former YHS principal, coach and teacher. He has accepted a position in the Spring School near Houston.

TWO—Voted to join the Texas Association of School Boards.

BOARD STATEMENT

The Cameron School Board released the following statement concerning the board's decision to drop seventh and eighth grade football in Cameron Schools:

"At the last meeting of the board the question of contact sports among junior high students was brought to the attention of the Board. An article from the Texas State Medical Journal was discussed that stated all medical articles they could find on the subject pointed out the great dangers of permanent injuries to pre-adolescent and adolescent children and demanded that such sports be discontinued among this age group.

"The Texas Society of Athletic Team Physicians also urged an end to such competition. They were particularly concerned about renal (kidney) injuries which they stated were "fairly common and it has been of interest that most of these have been in the junior high school group." They suggested that the youngsters instead undergo graduated and extensive training without contact. They suggested strength be built by means of calisthentics, weight lifting and wind sprints.

"In view of the medical authorities opinion and not wanting to take responsibility for such injuries after knowing the facts, the Board voted to discontinue contact sports on the junior high level.

"This does not mean that football will not keep its place in Yoe High School along with other sports."

Report From The Confederacy

Federals Whipped On Advance To Penisula

By Robert St°nedale

YORKTOWN, Virginia, June 10, 1861. – A small Confederate force under the command o Colonel Daniel H. Hill of North Carolina today smashed a Federal attempt to advance up the Peninsula toward the important Confederate base at Yorktown. Outnumbered 4500 to 1500 and new to war, the Southerners fought like polished veterans and scattered elements of no less than seven Union infantry regiments, together with a portion of the Second U. S. Artillery.

The Union troops were sent flying back down the road toward their base at Fortress Monroe-considerably wiser but fewer in number.

The Union forces at Fortress Monroe were reinforced last month and placed under the command of Brigadier - General Benjamin F. Butler, a Massachusetts politician of no special ability, military or civil. With a reputation to gain and a large number of men at ment which ended in his defeat today.

Two days ago, couts informed Colonel John B. Magruder, commander of the Confederate forces defending the Yorktown line, that the enemy was preparing to advance. Colonel Magruder ordered the First North Carolina, a battery from the Richmond Howitzer battalion, and several Virginia cavalry and infantry companies to advnce to meet the Federls and to throw up defenses in the vicinity of Big Bethel Caurch. Earthworks were quickly constructed east and west of the church and four light howitzers were placed in a rediubt facing the direction of the enemy advance.

Patrols sent out late yesterday established that the enemy was in motion and bugles rang through the camp of the First North Carolina at 3 o'clock tihsmorning.

Artillery Pl[a]ys Part

Colonel Hill deployed two companies as skirmishers and confidently waited for the attack.

At 9 a. m. the Union columns broke out of the trees south of the Confederate position, and the howitzers immediately opened a heavy fire. Federal artillery began dropping shells into the Confederate positions, but the North Carolinians stood to their duty without flinching while their colonel chose the moment for troop instruction. Leaping to the top of the parapet, Hill addressed his men in high good humor.

"Boys you must learn to dodge as we did in Mexico," he called out. He ducked abruptly as an exploding shell brought down one of the artillery horses in a welter of blood. Ignoring the screaming animal, Hill shook his fist at the enemy.

"Yiu missed me that time, you dogs!" he shouted defiantly.

THE Federal infantry advanced behind the heavy fire and struggled toward the southern point of the works as Hill inspired his men. They responded by driving off the attackers with a storm of rifle fire. A calm followed.

Second Attack Borken

At eleven o'clock the bombardment was resumed and was accompanied by three yelling lines of Union infantrymen advancing re-amed through the works while the defender's rifles grew hot. Once again the attacks were pushed back by the steady volleys of the Confederates. By one o'clock the battle was over and the Federals withdrew leaving more than 100 dead scattered on the field.

Confederate casualties number less than 15 killed and wounded. Cavalrymen report that the enemy is retreating toward Fortress Monroe in great haste. Colonel Magruder has ordered mostof his command to return to Yorktown whre a hero's welcome has been prepared.

Their valient defense has compensated for last week's debacle at Phillippi and leaves the government free to deal with the invasion threat iow developing near Manassas Junction.

Only A Skirmish

Although much is being made of the victory, Colonel Hill, a West Point trained veteran, does not appear to be much impressed.

"This was a skirmish, nothing more he advised his officers tonight. "The real fighting will come later."

TELEPHONE TALK

by C. L. Carson, Manager

SHORTENING THE MILES

It used to be that we could keep in touch with our families and friends with a chat over the backyard fence or a wave and friendly greeting from the front porch.

But is seems like people are moving around more these days - from city to city and out - of - state. Some of them settle close enough around Cameron that you can get together frequently on weekends. But others pack up and leave for places hundreds or even a thousand miles away.

Today, however, you can forget the miles that separate you - because of the telephone. A long distance call can cover the distance in seconds. You can reach friends or relatives in distant cities just as fast as you can set up an over - the - fence talk.

Calling long distance is fast, it's personal and the cost is low. You can call from Cameron to any place in the United States (except Alaska and Hawaii) for less than $2.00. That's the station - to station rate, every night after 6 p. m. and all day Sunday.

So when you make your next long distance call, remember to call station - to - station - the cost is about one-third less than for person - to - person. And always call by number . . . it's twice as fast.

TOOL CHEST ON WHEELS

I'll bet there isn't a housewife anywhere who hasn't found she lacked an ingredient for a recipe she was preparing. Or, for that matter, I wonder how many husbands have the right size washer on hand when they want to fix a leaky faucet.

The men who install telephones avoid situations like these by carrying a full assortment of parts and tools right with them. Their trucks are really parts departments on wheels, stocked with over 400 different items. They're prepared for every job when they call to install or repair service for you.

Being ready for the unexpected is just part of our effort at the telephone company to make sure your service is as convenient and trouble-free as is humanly possible.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.

65 New Laws On Fish, Game

AUSTIN — The recently completed Regular Session of the 57th Legislature saw the introduction of 108 bills pertaining to fish and game, of which 65 became laws.

Among the new laws of statewide interest is one permitting certain incapacitated persons to hunt from a vehicle (except from public roads), provided that incapacity is authenticated, in writing, by a licensed physician; a law requiring deer tags to bear the date and place of kill; one prohibiting the possession or transportation of live coypu (nutria) without written permission of he Game and Fish Commission, and a law classifying the sandhill crane as a game bird.

Wshington County was removed from the list of counties under Regulatory Authority, but 16 counties were added ot the 105 still participating in the program, to bring the net total to 121. In addition, Precinct 4 of Tyler County was placed under Regulatory Authority, as was that portion of Lake Texoma lying in Cooke and Grayson the Sommission was given reportion of Matagorda Island. Also the Cimmission was given regulatory responsibility over doe deer in San Saba County.

A Digest summarizing the general game and fish laws is being prepared for distribution early this fall.

Emmet Carson Takes Position In FBC Staff

Emmet Carson, May graduate of South Western Theological Seminary, Ft. Worth, is undergoing his three - week - old position as Music and Educational Director of Cameron's First Baptist Church with an air of enthusiasm and an eye for the future, sure signs of success.

Carson, a thirty - one year old bachelor and former route supervisor for Coca Cola, expressed himself freely in his appreciation of the Cameron people and the friendly way in which they have accepted him.

"I know this is a big job, but I feel wonderful about working with the people of Cameron and the church. The friendliness of Cameron people has surpassed any expectations I had."

A 1947 graduate of Enid High School in Enid, Oklahoma, he attended Phillips University in Enid for a semester before entering his father's service station business and then working for Coca - Cola. He was a salesman for four years and a route supervisor for three.

In talking with Carson he said he felt something was missing in his life and the Lord called him to enter into church work in the educational field.

His duties will include serving as minister of music and directing all church services and the choir. He will be in charge of the youth program and schedule nights. He will assist in publication of "The Messenger," the church weekly paper.

His first major job was in organizing Bible School, in which about 150 youngsters and 30 workers are taking part.

Jokingly Carson added that his main obstacle may be adjusting from a city of 40,000 to a small town.

Carson and his mother are residing at 505 West 4th.

Farm Safety Week Set By President

COLLEGE STATION — The period from July 23-29 has been designated as National Farm Safety Week by a proclamation released by President Kennedy.

The President called attention to the fact that more than a million farm residens are injured and thousands are killed each year in accidents and that these accidents bring suffering and sorrow to our farm families and inflict heavy economic losses upon both the farm community and nation. The safety of these people, he continued, who produce our food is of vital concern to all our citizens.

President Kennedy is urging all persons and organizations interested in the safety of farm people to support and participate in his special endeavor to help recidents. He asked farm residents to remember that "Safety is a Family Affair."

In Texas, plans are going forward for the observance of the Week, reports the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council. In many counties extensive programs will be carried out, emphasizing that safety is a family affair. County exension agents, 4-H Club members and their leaders, farm and community organization leaders and others with a deep interest in he promotion will contribute to the overall plans.

MULCH CONTEST

With the entry deadline still a month away, Jack Barton, extension soil and water conservation continues to climb in the first National Stubble Mulch Contest scheduled for Wichia Falls, in late July.

AMERICAN DAIRY COW

The story of man and the dairy cow are closely linked. It goes back to the very beginning of civilization. In America the first dairy cattle were shipped to Jamestown, Virginia, in 1611.

FACTS ABOUT YOUR HEARING

For the past several years Doctors and research departments have been testing and studying ways to combat the alarming amount of people that are becoming hard of hearing. Not only did they find that lots of our older people are hard of hearing-they also found over one million children have some kind of hearing problem. Sounds bad, but it's true.

Here are some other facts that you might be interested in:

That over 50% of the people that wear hearing aids are mis-fitted for one reason or the other. In lots of cases people have shopped for a hearing aid like shopping at a dime store, not knowing if the aid fits their troubles or not. Others are trying to wear cast-off hearing aids left by some loved one that has gone to rest.

That over two million people need to do something about their hearing problem but just keep putting it off for one reason or the other. Some of the reasons: Mrs. Jones wears one and she can't hear a thing, altho it's possible that Mrs. Jones is one of the above that is mis-fitted. To her, all hearing aids are the same, and she will run up and down the street and tell people that could be helped not to get one. Yet the same Mrs. Jones, when she started going blind, had her eyes tested and glasses fitted to her eyes. The same with her teeth, they were fitted to her, but to the most important part of her head, (the ears) she picked up the first aid she could find and then then wondered why she could not hear. One of the big factors of why people won't do anything about their hearing problem is vanity. They are so afraid that someone will stare at them. Yet this same person will either ask over and over what someone said or put their hand behind their ear trying to understand what is being said, or sit in a crowd and say yes when they should have said no, or they will go in a shell and stay away from people, church, etc., and yet they are afraid someone will notice that they wear a hearing aid.

Other facts: If people would have a hearing test made when they noticed the first sign that they were getting hard of hearing, they would not have so much trouble later on.

Yet lots of people will put it off until they get in real trouble then expect to be corrected over night, although they have been several years getting that way—they still want correction over night. If this same person had taken time out to have their hearing tested at least every six months, they would not have gotten in trouble. You do not wait until you are nearly blind to have your eyes tested do you?

Maybe the above statements are a little blunt, and maybe they hit below the belt, but we in the hearing business have spent thousands of dollars on research to aid and help the hard of hearing. We feel you should know the facts and here are some of the facts from our side of the fence. Years ago if a person had to wear a hearing aid everyone knew it, for they had big battery boxes and cords with buttons in the ear. It was like hooking up the harness on the buggy horse. Then came the news of the hearing glassse; but they too were big and heavy, but it got the boxes and cords off most people. Then the big news we had been waiting on and knew was coming: PRESCRIPTION HEARING. At the same time the unit to go behind the ear came into light. Then came the METRICON. THIS INSTRUMENT was developed by one of our noted scientists John A. Victoreen, who had gone into retirement—and due to a lifelong friend who was hard of hearing started seeking ways to fit this person with natural, normal hearing. The METRICON WAS THE RESULT. After an audiogram is run the METRICON takes the guesswork out of how and what to fit a hard of hearing person with—known as prescription fitting. With this machine available to the Audiotician our problem was over as far as fitting the hard of hearing. As time went by the hearing glasses became slimmer, and more streamlined until today you see people with hearing glasses and you do not even know it. The little unit behind the ear got smaller until today they are so small that they are completely hidden behind the ear and weigh less than an ounce—yet by prescription fitting gives the person normal hearing. These were designed for the people that do not wear glasses or the ones that do not wear glasses all the time. Then the big news came about two months ago, at last a unit so small it fit into the ear. That's right, the whole unit goes in the ear. This is the biggest breakthrough in fifteen years. No more cords, tubes, etc. Now people that would not wear hearing aids before because of some of the reasons we have mentioned before can now be fitted to hear again with the whole unit in the ear. In fact, you can sleep in it if you cared to do so.

Yes, the hearing industry has come a long way, and with the "all in the ear" unit, has reached the end of a long rough road so that you—the hard of hearing—may enjoy the fruits of a long battle. Now there is no reason for anyone that is hard of hearing to suffer any longer.

That's our story. We hope we have helped to enlighten you about your hearing problem. If we can help one person to hear better and understand what they hear; if we help one person to get back in church; if we help one person out of the world of loneliness; if we help one child to hear playmates and to understand in school, we feel that our battle has been well fought.

Now, maybe you are asking yourself how you can find out if the aid you are now wearing is made for your hearing loss, or if you can wear one of the new units where the whole thing goes in your ear. Or maybe you do not wear hearing at this time and feel you should have a complete hearing test to see what your hearing loss is. Here is your answer.

Mr. Treadway will hold a hearing clinic at Hotel Cameron in Cameron, Tuesday, June 20, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; also from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

There is no cost for a complete hearing test and you are not obligated in any way. We will give you a complete test and then it is up to you to do what you desire about it. We will show you the new all-in-the-ear units. We will do our best to help you in any way we can, but you can rest assured that no one will try to sell you anything and you are not obligated in any way. Bring the children if you feel they have a hearing problem. We know there are people that cannot come to the clinic for one reason or another. If you will write us we will be happy to come to your home and give you the same test. Or you may call us at the clinic and we will come out to see you. OUR MAILING ADDRESS IS: HEARING AID CENTER, 805 AUSTIN AVE., WACO, TEXAS.
